

KEGS Presents:

Recent Developments in Passive Geophysical Methods

Saturday March 1st, 2008

The Canadian Exploration Geophysical Society (KEGS) is presenting a Passive Geophysical Methods Symposium prior to the PDAC Convention in Toronto on Saturday March 1st, 8 am to 5 pm, at the Intercontinental Hotel (225 Front Street West), Ballroom B in downtown Toronto. The day-long symposium will investigate new developments in new passive geophysical methods, as well as the state of the art in some "old" techniques. The registration fee includes a continental breakfast, lunch, and coffee breaks, as well as a Symposium CD with papers and presentations.

Payment for the events may be made by cheque, payable to KEGS, or by credit card by faxing this form to Micki Allen, Marac Enterprises at 905-474-1968. Your credit card payment will appear on your statement as an entry by Marac Enterprises.

For all payments, please keep a copy of this form as your receipt. For payment by cheque, return this form with your payment.
